

UK - GREECE: MAINTAINING A CLOSE RELATIONSHIP POST-BREXIT

Programme

09.00 Registration

09.30 Welcome addresses

Kate Smith, British Ambassador

Lord Mountevans, Chairman, Maritime London

09.45 Keynote addresses

Nusrat Ghani MP, Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Transport, UK Government

Panagiotis Kouroumplis, Minister for Shipping and Insular Policy, Hellenic Republic – TBC

10.30 Coffee Break

10.45 The UK as a world-leading provider of maritime services

An interactive panel debate outlining the UK's current strength in maritime services in the context of the potential threats and opportunities that may arise as the UK prepares to leave the European Union.

Moderator: Harry Theochari, Partner & Global Head of Transport, Norton Rose Fulbright LLP

Panellists:

Julian Clark, Partner & Global Head of Transport, Hill Dickinson LLP (positioning statement)

Mark Jackson, CEO, The Baltic Exchange

Richard Greiner, Partner, Moore Stephens LLP

Ian Gooch, CEO, The London P&I Club

James Kidwell, CEO, Braemar Shipping Services plc

11.45 Q&A Session

12.00 Networking Lunch

Sponsored by:

HILL DICKINSON

Supported by:

Department for International Trade

Department for Transport

As part of:

Posidonia  Ποσειδώνια
The International Shipping Exhibition
4-8 June 2018