The largest annual,
open-access East Med survey, running until 2027 and already answered by thousands

WHAT THE SURVEY IS ALREADY SHOWING

Awareness across the maritime community is rising but progress is uneven

Strong willingness to act, while major skills and infrastructure gaps remain

A safe transition depends on developing technical, safety, and soft skills together

70% of seafarers identify crew fatigue linked to extra duties from new regulations as the No. 1 safety risk
